Project Management Training for PMP® Certification: Live eLearning

Millennium Mantra, Inc has been conducting training programs in project management for individual and corporate customers since 2003. Over the period, 99% of our students have successfully passed the PMP® Certification exams in the first attempt. Based on 24 years of experience and broad perspective gained through managing projects in the high tech industry, our training programs not only prepare the students for the exam but also ensure that the students develop a very strong foundation of project management principles, practices and tools.

We are the first company to offer Project Management training using conference calls since 2003. Now we use the state-of-the-art, web-based class-room software to deliver our programs. From anywhere all over the globe, our students can participate in the web-class where experts provide live training, interact with the students on the conference call and deliver the same quality of training that we are reputed for.

Why attend our class?

- Consistently conducting PMP® exam prep classes since 2003. Our training programs have continuously updated based on the latest updates to the PMBOK® guide.
- Our methodology includes lectures, quizzes, class discussions and evaluation tests. Our students have benefitted from this methodology and we are proud of our 99% of success rate.
- Our commitment to our students continues even after the class is over. We support our students until the students pass the exam, without charging any extra fees!
